TRAINING GOALS:

The Novell Identity Manager 4 family of products now includes roles provisioning. Users can now be granted resource and access rights according to job roles. Using roles in your enterprise can help identify separation of duties violations for compliance purposes and allows for automatic provisioning and deprovisioning of resources as employees change job functions. In Novell Identity Manager 4 Advanced Edition: Customization and Roles (Course 3110), you will learn to manage entitlements, configure custom workflows, create roles and more. Start using the full power of roles provisioning today! During this course, you will learn to:

- Develop polices
- Implement advanced drivers
- Configure and run advanced reports
- Manage entitlements
- Configure custom workflows
- Define and create roles with Roles Based Provisioning
- Customize the user application

This course is for anyone managing identity in the enterprise using the Novell Identity Manager 4 family of products that includes roles provisioning. Additionally, this course is ideal preparation for those seeking the Certified Novell Identity Manager 4 (CNIMA) certification.
